Income: Social Media Influencer

There are many ways a person can get paid for being a social media influencer. Most are independent contractors and should be treated as self-employed.

Example: Kevin streams for YouTube. He can make anywhere from $1,200 to $4,000, dependent upon his views, ads, etc., per month and receives a statement each month. He also has subscribers and gifts given which must also be included as income. In this case, he can provide the most recent 4-6 statements. To calculate his income, average the statements and count the net income. The taxes paid/owed are not considered an allowable deduction when determining the net income. Please note, not all influencers receive monthly statements; therefore, you will need to work with the applicant and/or prospective resident regarding what they have available to verify their income.

Acceptable forms of verification would include:

- IRS form 1040 schedule C or 4506-T
- Statements showing net income (most recent 4-6 to average)
- Other documentation listed in Appendix 3 of the 4350.3
- Self affidavit as last resort

Income: Child Support/Alimony

Child Support/Alimony: the amounts received ONLY are included for eligibility, regardless of what the court ordered amount is.

If Court Ordered or through Enforcement Agency:

- Obtain the current pay history at the time of application/certification
- Include the payments received within 120 days of the certification effective date

If NOT Court Ordered or through an Enforcement Agency:

- Obtain a monetary gift letter from the person paying the cash support
- If unable to obtain gift letter, family should self-certify the income

61

Learning Point: Child Support/Alimony; Not Received

Kara has a court order to receive $325 per month, but her ex-husband does not pay, she has certified to this fact; however, Kara has made no effort to collect the child support. The payment history received from the Attorney General indicates that payments are not made.

We must count the full $325 per month as income, true or false?

False

Only the amounts received are included in the annual income for eligibility.

62

Learning Point: Child Support/Alimony; Given Back

An applicant has provided a pay history showing a payment of child support in the amount of $250 every month. The applicant is returning all of the money via Venmo since the non-custodial parent and the applicant have mutually agreed upon a change to the child support order and now are sharing custody.

Does the full child support amount need to be included as income?

The child support must be included in the family's annual income calculation because the pay history reflects receipt of payments.

It is up to the family to make necessary changes with the child support enforcement agency.

Income: Retirement Accounts

Betty is 75 years old and has retired this year. She is contributing to her IRA and, because she is over the age of 72, is receiving $6,450.00 per quarter in required disbursements (RMD).

While the retirement account, as of January 1, 2024, is no longer considered an asset for Betty's family, the income must be included as regular income for the family.

Andrea is 40 years old and has not retired. She is contributing to her 401k through her job but has had to take money out of her 401k to help her pay expenses incurred. She is taking these out as withdrawals and not loans on her 401k.

The retirement account, as of January 1, 2024, is no longer considered an asset for Andrea's family and the withdrawals are excluded as income for the family because they are not required disbursements.

Revised January 14, 2022

The Certification of Zero Income is not a required form; however, it is helpful as a due diligence item to ensure that all income sources have been properly screened for, and a person truly has zero income.

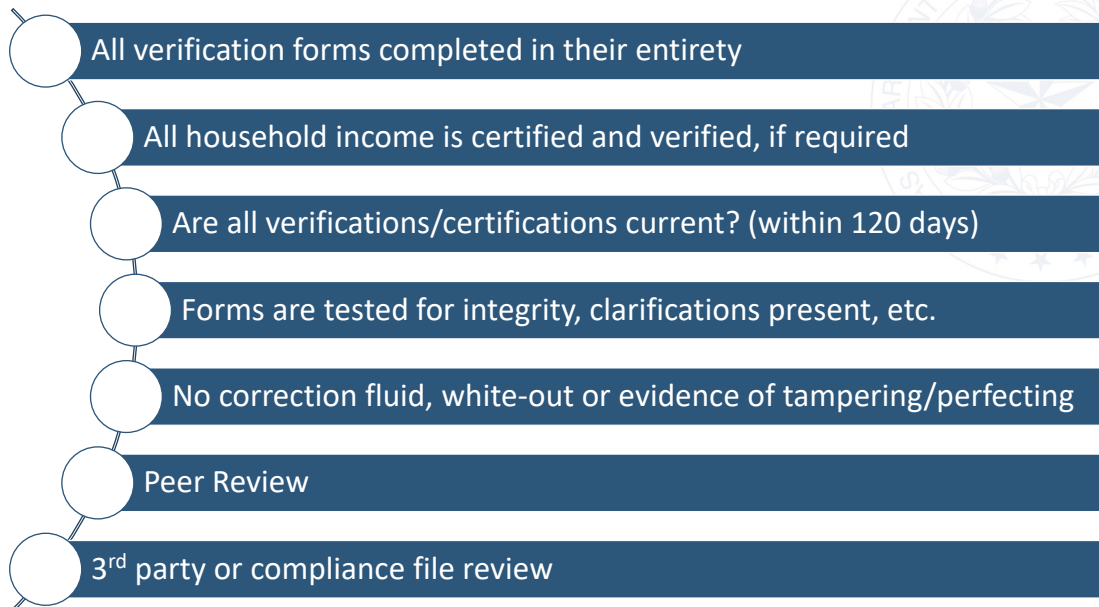

The Department does not have a form for a household to certify that they are not employed; however, owners are encouraged to use whatever means necessary to determine household eligibility and this is a helpful form in that regard.

Income: Student Eligibility HAS NOT Changed

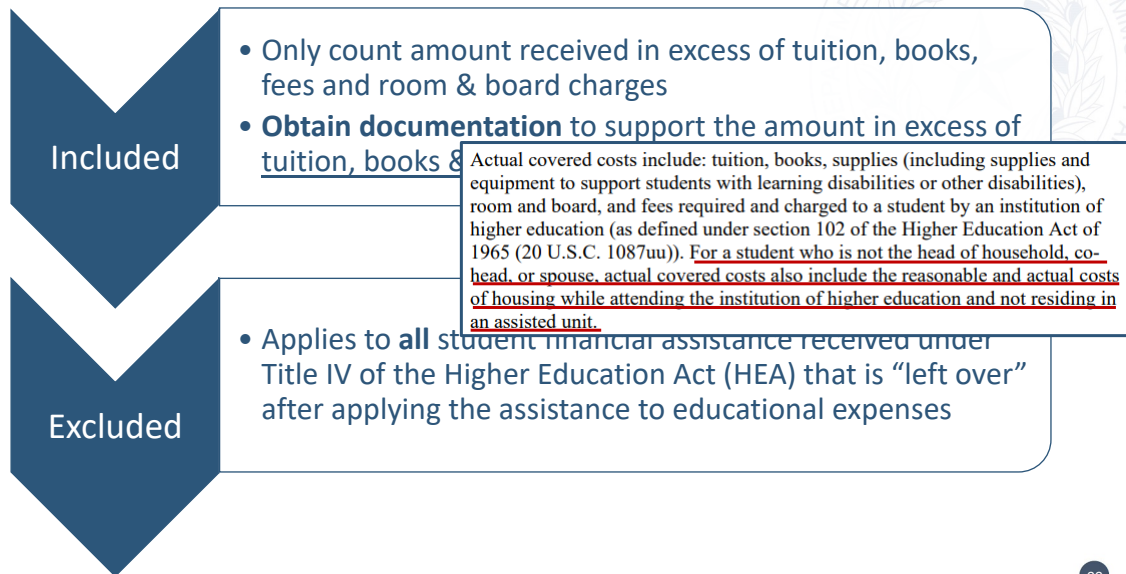

Student Eligibility is program based. The eligibility requirements for student family members participating in programs has not been changed. You must ensure that the student eligibility for the family members has been met.

All student household family members must be evaluated for student financial aid as we will discuss on the following slides.

98

Income: Financial Aid, Included or Excluded

99

Income: Financial Aid

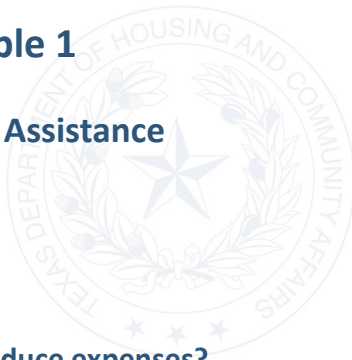

If the family contains a student:

- All assistance provided through Title IV HEA must be excluded from income if there is a remaining balance after applying the assistance to the educational expenses
- All other assistance should be evaluated for inclusion in family income; any excess assistance must be included in the income after applying the assistance to any remaining educational expenses

100

Learning Point: Student Financial Assistance Example 1

Calculation of Income from Student Financial Assistance

Qualified Education Expenses:	$12,850
Title IV HEA Assistance:	$14,590
Other Financial Assistance:	$5,000
Total of Financial Assistance:	$19,590

How much total financial assistance would be used to reduce expenses?

$14,590, any amount leftover is excluded by statute

How much should count as regular income?

$5,000

All assistance provided through Title IV HEA must be excluded from income. This exclusion must be taken into account first. Anything remaining after deducting the qualified expenses is not considered income. Had a balance been left, the other financial assistance would have been applied and anything leftover would be counted as income.

101

101

Learning Point: Student Financial Assistance Example 2

Calculation of Income from Student Financial Assistance

Qualified Education Expenses:	$18,000
Title IV HEA Assistance:	$14,590
Other Financial Assistance:	$5,000
Total of Financial Assistance:	$19,590

How much total financial assistance would be used to reduce expenses?

$18,000 ($14,590 plus $3,410 of the $5,000)

How much should count as regular income?

$1,590 ($5,000 minus remaining $3,410)

All assistance provided through Title IV HEA must be excluded from income. This exclusion must be taken into account first. Anything remaining after deducting the qualified expenses is not considered income. Since a balance was left, the other financial assistance has been applied and anything leftover will be counted as income.

102

102

Learning Point: Student Financial Assistance Example 3

Calculation of Income from Student Financial Assistance

Qualified Education Expenses:	$18,000
Scholarship from a local entity:	$8,000
Persons outside the household:	$25,000
Total of Financial Assistance:	$33,000 $8,000

How much total financial assistance would be used to reduce expenses?

How much should be counted as income?

$25,000; amounts received from persons outside the household.

All assistance provided through the PHA/MFH must be taken into account first. Anything remaining after deducting the qualified expenses is not considered income. Since a balance (the gift) was left, the financial assistance has been applied and anything additional will be counted as income.

Other student financial assistance does not include:

- Financial support provided to the student in the form of a fee for services performed (e.g., a work study or teaching fellowship that is not excluded under section 479B of the Higher Education Act HEA); or
- Gifts, including gifts from family or friends.

Note: Other student financial assistance may be paid directly to the student or to the educational institution on the student's behalf. The PHA/MFH Owner must verify that the other student financial assistance is for the student's actual covered costs.

Assets: Excluded Assets

The Rodriguez family received a $4,500 federal tax refund on 3/1/2024 and deposited the refund into their checking account. At their next annual reexamination with an effective date of 8/1/2024, the PHA/MFH Owner asks the family about any assets they own, the anticipated income from the assets, and if they received a federal tax refund or refundable tax credits in the past 12 months and where they deposited the refund/refundable tax credits or if they purchased savings bonds with the refund.

The Rodriguez family explain that they received a $4,500 refund and that they deposited the refund into their checking account, which has a balance of $10,000. The Rodriguez family reports that they have actual income of $100 from the checking account this year. The family owns no other assets. Therefore, the family's total calculation of net family assets is $10,000. In determining the total value of net family assets, the PHA/MFH Owner subtracts $4,500 from the total of $10,000 of net family assets, for a total countable asset of $5,500. The full value of actual income is included as income, because actual income is always included even on excluded assets.

Notice H 2023-10 & Notice PIH 2023-27
Example F2: Federal Tax Refund Excluded from Net Family Assets

112

112

Assets: Retirement Accounts

Retirement accounts are no longer included in the calculation of net family assets

Income from interest/dividends is not included in the calculation of income, but regular disbursements are income

113

113

Assets

Assets are items of value that may be turned into cash

- Not all items of value are considered an asset
- Items are not required to be “cashed out” at time of application

STEP 1: “ACTUAL INCOME” - The amount of income those assets are earning or could earn

STEP 2: “CASH VALUE” - The total cash value of the family’s assets

STEP 3; if required: “IMPUTED INCOME” - The amount of income for assets that do not have a determinable rate of return when the net family assets are more than $51,600

For any assets whose actual income cannot be determined, calculate imputed income when the household’s net family assets are over $51,600.

Do NOT calculate imputed income for assets whose income is determinable.

Do NOT calculate the imputed income based on the total cash value of the assets.

114

Assets: Actual Income

Not all assets have income

115

115

Assets: Verification Requirements

- HOTMA requires that all households have assets fully verified once during each 3 years of tenancy, households may then self-certify assets when the total is equal to or less than $51,600. There are some exceptions to this rule:
 - HTC, Exchange, TCAP, and THTF may self-certify assets when the amount is $51,600 or less
 - BOND must fully verify assets at initial certification and during each 3rd year of tenancy when an income certification is completed
 - MFDL Programs: at Initial Certification the assets must be fully verified by third party or first-hand documentation; also, during the 6th year of the affordability period certifications the assets must be verified
- For 811 Program units, the assets must be fully verified by third party or first-hand documentation at Move-In and Initial Certifications and during each 3rd year certification for the household
 - All 811 households must have their assets fully verified during the first HOTMA recertification
- All assets can be verified using one (1) statement from the financial institution
 - When verification of assets is required, Owners are required to obtain a minimum of one statement that reflects the current balance of banking/financial accounts

116

116

Assets: Self-Certification or Verification

Asset Certification

- The use of this form is not allowed if program or certification year requires full verification of assets
- Must be used in addition to the application screening tool to certify disposed of assets as well as assets held currently by the household
- Required, if assets are under or equal to required threshold during years when asset verifications are not required

Asset Verification

- Required if a household's total assets cash value is greater than the HUD threshold, currently $51,600, and if program or certification year requires full verification (discussed on previous slide)
- Must be sent directly to the financial institution which holds the asset and returned directly to the development

Assets: Formulas

Step 1: Determine the Actual Income from the Asset:

Step 2: Determine the Cash Value of the Asset:

118

118

Assets: Determining Actual Income

Step 1: Determine the Actual Income from the Asset

If the combined cash value of the net family assets is under the HUD Asset Verification Threshold for the family, ONLY the actual income from assets is included.

$$$51,600 \geq \text{Total Assets}$$

Only Actual Income from Assets is included

If the combined cash value of the net family assets is greater than the threshold, the annual income includes the actual income from assets with a determinable rate of return and the imputed income calculated on assets without a determinable rate of return using the current passbook savings rate (.45%) as established by HUD.

$$$51,600 < \text{Total Assets}$$

For assets where the actual income is known use the actual income; for the assets without actual income use the imputed income

119

119

Assets: Determining Cash Value

Step 2: Determine the Cash Value of an Asset

The “cash value” of an asset is the market value less reasonable expenses that would be incurred in selling or converting the asset to cash.

The cash value is the amount the family could receive in cash if the family converted an asset to cash.

The family is not required to convert an asset to cash.

120

120

Assets: Determining Imputed Income

Step 3: Determine the Imputed Income from the Asset, if required

If the combined cash value of the net family assets is OVER the HUD Asset Verification Threshold for the family, the actual income from assets is included in the family's annual income, if determinable, and the imputed income from passbook savings rates is included for those that do not have a determinable rate of return.

If net family assets are over the threshold, then any asset without a determinable rate of return must have imputed income calculated using the current passbook savings rate.

$$51,600 \leq \text{Total Net Family Assets}$

Actual & Imputed Income from Assets is included

What to consider with regards to Imputed Income:

- Do non-necessary personal property total more than the threshold?
 - If yes, they are included in net family assets along with all

- If the value of real property and non-necessary personal property puts the net family assets over the threshold, imputed income must be calculated unless the asset is receiving income, like a rental property.

Assets: Actual and Imputed Income

- Actual Income from assets is always included in a family's annual income, regardless of the total value of net family assets or whether the asset itself is included or excluded from net family assets, unless that income is specifically excluded by 24 CFR 5.609(b).
- Imputed Income must be calculated for specific assets when three conditions are met:
 - The value of net family assets exceeds $51,600;
 - The specific asset is included in net family assets; and
 - Actual asset income cannot be calculated for the specific asset.
- All assets are categorized as either real property (e.g., land, a home) or personal property. Personal property includes tangible items, like boats, as well as intangible items, like bank accounts.
 - Necessary personal property is excluded from net family assets.
 - Non-necessary personal property with a combined value greater than $51,600, as adjusted for inflation, is considered part of net family assets; if the combined value is $51,600 or less then all of the non-necessary personal property is excluded from net family assets.
 - For example, a family could have non-necessary personal property with a combined value that does not exceed $51,600 but also own real property such as a parcel of land. Even though the non-necessary personal property would be excluded from net family assets, the real property would be included in net family assets regardless of its value.

Assets: Peer-To-Peer Payment Applications

Venmo

Cash App

PayPal

Zelle

- If regular deposits are seen on these assets, the account holder should be asked to provide an explanation.
 - There are cases where these apps are used to sell homemade items and services. If the account is being used this way, the income must be included as self-employed income for the household.
- These sources of assets should be investigated. If there is a balance held in the account, it should be included in net family assets.
- The list above is not exhaustive, these are some of the commonly seen sources.

137

Learning Point: Peer-To-Peer Payment Applications

Dawn babysits; she gets paid through Venmo

- The income she receives must be included
- If her Venmo account holds a balance it is an asset
- If the account does not have a balance, it is not included as an asset

Domanik makes and sells glitter tumblers, she is paid through PayPal

- The income from the sales is income for the household
- If the PayPal account holds a balance of money, then it must be included as an asset
- If the account does not have a balance, it is not included as an asset

Amy's roommates pay her back for the home expenses incurred through Zelle

- Zelle is a pass-thru account only, it cannot hold money, so this is not an asset
- This is not income, it is a reimbursement
- If Amy was receiving money for something like dog-sitting for her roommate, that would be income to include in the calculation of eligibility

Joe just invested $5,000 in a CD at a fixed interest rate of 5% with 5 years maturity. Upon maturity, Joe's initial investment of $5,000 will reach $6,382. The return on the CD for the period of 5 years is $1,382. If Joe removes the CD before maturity a penalty of 3.5% will be assessed.

Assets: Annuities

Annuities

- Cash Value = Full Value less withdrawal penalties, taxes or tax penalties
- Actual Income = Interest Income, if any

Ask the account holder if they have the right to withdraw the balance, their answer will tell you how to handle the annuity.

- If yes, the account is an asset, even if payments are being made.
- If no, the account is not an asset.

Generally, when annuity payments are received it can no longer be converted to a lump sum of cash; in this case the payments are income but the annuity is not treated as an asset.

144

Learning Point: Annuities; Actual Income

Earnest purchased a $100,000 annuity at age 65 with immediate payments of $614 monthly, but he is deferring these. The annuity has a 5% interest rate over 10 years. At age 70, the annuity will pay $613 monthly for life. Earnest can withdraw the remainder with a penalty of 3%.

What is the actual income for the asset?

Assets: Trusts

Trusts

- Cash Value = Withdrawn Amount
- Actual Income = Interest Income, if any

The property held in a trust can be cash, real property (land), personal property (jewelry) or any other liquid assets.

There are two types of trusts

1. Revocable – The creator of the trust may amend or revoke the trust, they have retained access
 2. Irrevocable – The creator has no access to the funds, they did not retain access
- If anyone in the family has access to the trust it must be considered in the calculation of assets.

147

Learning Point: Trusts

Julie has setup a trust for her grandson to receive when he reaches the age of 25. The trust is intended to help him purchase his first home. Julie has placed $25,000 in the trust. The trust earns about $1,000 per year, but the income is reinvested into the trust. Julie has set the trust up as irrevocable; she no longer has access to the trust and her grandson is not yet the age required to access the trust account.

Julie is applying, how should the trust be handled for her application and certification of assets?

- a) The trust's current value and $1,000 annual income must be included
- b) The trust's current value is included but the income is not included since it is reinvested
- c) None of the trust, income or current balance, is included since it is irrevocable
- d) We should ask Julie how much she wants to include and only count that amount

Assets: Cryptocurrency

Cryptocurrency

Cash Value = Current market value less penalties/fees

Actual Income = Any income earned by the asset

Cryptocurrency is held online, typically in interest-yielding accounts called Decentralized Finance platforms (DeFis). Treat cryptocurrency like a foreign currency.

149

Assets: Cryptocurrencies continued

- First, obtain a statement, or some kind of other digital evidence such as a screenshot, from the account in which the cryptocurrency is held. Take that market value and determine the current exchange rate with US dollars.
 - The exchange rate can change frequently, use what it is at the time you're making the determination. Try using a site like <http://coindesk.com>.
- Next, determine the broker fee associated with converting the cryptocurrency into US dollars. That information will come from either the account in which the crypto is held, or it could come from the applicant/resident.
 - For example, a resident may say that they're not sure how to convert the Bitcoin into US dollars, but they know that CoinStar machines will do it for a fee. That fee is the cost to convert the Bitcoin to cash. Once that is established, you'll arrive at the cash value.
- Finally, To determine the actual yearly income, look for interest information from the DeFi platform they use to hold the cryptocurrency.
 - If they're really savvy, they may be getting interest from yielding or staking... in that case, you may have to look deeper and ask more questions. Perhaps they have a record of the asset income they've earned within the DeFi itself, or they may have an IRS Form 1099-INT.

Assets: Real Estate for Rent

What to do when family owns a home (real estate) and is renting it out:

- Determine the cash value of the real estate, which was covered on the previous slides
- If rental income is received from real estate, it must be included as income from an asset
 - If the family indicates to you that someone else is living in the home and paying the mortgage for them, this is a rental property, and the rental amount is the mortgage payment
- You may need to gather the following documents:
 - Verification of rental income to be received in the next 12 months; i.e. a lease contract
 - If there are any expenses in renting the home, the following may be deducted from rental income if verification is obtained to support the deductions:
 - Taxes
 - Insurance
 - Maintenance
 - Utilities
 - Mortgage Interest
 - Management Fees

158

158

Learning Point: Real Estate – Determining Rental Income

The Lee family owns a home, which they are renting out. We have already determined that the cash value of the home is $190,000. They have indicated that they rent the home for $1,700 per month. They still pay the taxes of $9,250 and mortgage interest of $5,884.97 on the home. What should the income from the asset be on the Income Certification?

Step 1: Determine the annual amount received from rental income

$1,700 per month x 12 months = $20,400 annual rental income

Step 2: Determine the expenses associated with renting the home:

$9,250 taxes + $5,884.97 mortgage interest = $15,134.97 total deductions

Step 3: Subtract the deductions from the rental income to determine the asset income:

$20,400 rental income - $15,134.97 verified deductions =

$5,265.03 Annual Income from Asset

Assets: Disposed of for Less than Fair Market Value (FMV)

Assets disposed of for less than FMV

- Cash Value = Market Value less the disposed of amount and the cost to convert
- Actual Income = No actual income

- Include Cash Value if:
 - Fair Market Value (FMV) of asset(s) disposed of exceeds the gross amount received for the asset
 - The Certification period is within the 2-year period following disposal
 - When 2-year period expires imputed income, if any, assigned to the reported asset(s) also expires
- Assets disposed of for less than fair market value as a result of foreclosure, bankruptcy, divorce or separation are NOT counted

170

Assets: Imputed Income

- Imputed income is a percentage of the value of assets where the actual rate of return is not determinable when the net family assets are more than $51,600 based on the current passbook savings rate of .45%
- Imputed* income is determined by calculating:

2025 Passbook Rate = 0.45%
HUD will evaluate and update this annually

Do we have to verify the $150,000 in disposed of assets?

Yes, the household has to have assets fully verified; but when they applied, we did not know what the values would be, and we needed to certify cash on hand and disposed of assets. So, we used the Asset Certification form.

Assets: Exclusions in HOTMA Do Not Impact Department Programs

HOTMA does have an asset exclusion for families that have assets totaling more than $100,000 and for families owning real estate.

These exclusions do not apply to most of the Department programs because most of the programs are covered under good cause protections and income is not a good cause. The exclusions are Public Housing and Section 8 requirements that would impact the Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher program at the Department.
