¹Health and Human Services in Texas are in the middle of a 2-year transformation that will result in a more streamlined organization that is more responsive to the people of Texas. In the first phase, client services transferred to Texas Health and Human Services (HHS) on Sept. 1, 2016.

²The 84th Legislature significantly reorganized the health and human services system through Senate Bill 200, including transferring some functions from DSHS to the Health and Human Services Commission.
